

H-ON Consulting
Via Lepanto 23, Prato (IT)

Florence, 31/12/2020

To whom it may concern

We chose H-ON Consulting as our partner in the field of machinery safety because of their highly specialized technical knowledge and capacity to provide us with concrete solutions.

Their flexible and innovative approach to Technical assistance had been the key for the success of our lifting equipment conformity project according to the Directive 2006/42/CE.

We look forward for further collaboration,

Sincerely,

Vincenzo Amato, Lloyd's Register
