We hereby confirm that H-ON Consulting has been a supplier for Bormioli Pharma S.r.l. providing support with production asset conformity restoring.

H-ON has carried out the analysis of all production lines for our glass and plastic products in all company plants with the aim to develop a multi-year plan for the conformity restoring of our production assets. They have been involved in the research and development of new technological solutions for the risk mitigation of production machines.

Thanks to its globally-minded and holistic approach, H-ON Consulting is able to provide flexible solutions and quickly adapt to the needs of the customer. We especially appreciate their ability to manage international projects effectively and provide top-quality service throughout the whole project.

Sincerely,

Andrea Fellini
